WITH DANCERS

and other top ensembles

Music by Johannes Brahms, Frédéric Chopin, Alexander McKenzie, Maurice Ravel, Franz Schubert and Pēteris Vasks.

Dance in the Elbphilharmonie: For this unusual premiere, the Copenhagen TRIO VITRUVI led by Alexander McKenzie brings international award-winning artists to Hamburg. In KAMMERBALLETTEN they combine the virtuosity and intimacy of classical chamber music with modern ballet.

The dialogue of music and dance brings hearing and seeing into a unique perception — in one of the most lucid places in modern architecture. Where, if not here, can the spirit of art open up?

NEUE BAHNEN — an evening of dance with Trio Vitruvi and Kammerballetten
Thursday, 6 April 2023, 8.00 p.m.
Great Hall, Elbphilharmonie Hamburg

KAMMERBALLETTEN was founded in 2018 by TRIO VITRUVI with Niklas Walentin, violin, Jacob la Cour, cello, and Alexander McKenzie, piano, and has since presented world premieres of new ballet works at the Royal Danish Opera House in Copenhagen and at international festivals.

The purpose and aims of the CHRISTOPH LOHFERT FOUNDATION lie in improving patient orientation in the German health care system as well as the promotion of artistic projects and excellent creative artists. With the dance evening NEUE BAHNEN, the foundation is honouring the vision and work of its founder, Dr. Christoph Lohfert.

The complete program will soon be available on the websites of the Christoph Lohfert Foundation and the Elbphilharmonie.

TICKETS are available at advance booking offices, the Elbphilharmonie ticket shop and online:
